

received by bill of exchange from my <sup>3</sup> pound brother Newton the 22 of December 1660: 100 ~~pounds~~ one other hundred pound I left in his hands to discharge Will Buchards. 100 pound mortgage; so there remaineth in his hands this 25th of December the sume of two thousand pounds which I am to have use for, this time I left in my Brother Newtons hands upon the sale of Harttrie one hundred to pay annuity to the schoole at East Harttrie for the maintenance of fower poore schollars there which was my giift besides
